Numb. 7749.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 28. to Tuesday October 31. 1738.

Whitehall, October 31.

ON Saturday about Noon, his Majesty, with his Royal Highness the Duke, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia, Caroline, Mary, and Louisa, came from Kensington to St. James's, to reside there during the Winter.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-Day, his Majesty received at Noon the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction; at Night there was a Ball. The Appearance was at both Times very numerous and extremely splendid. On this Occasion the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other publick Demonstrations of Joy throughout London and Westminster.

Vienna, Oct. 29, N. S. We have the following Account from Belgrade by Letters of the 8th Instant. The Imperial Army which had encamped at Semlin, consisting of 110 Squadrons, 14 Battalions, 14 Companies of Grenadiers, and having with them a Train of 20 Pieces of Cannon, passed the Save and the Danube the 11th and 12th of this Month, under the Command of Count Kevenhuller, advanced by the Way of Bortza and Schemnitza into the Neighbourhood of Panchova, and encamped there on the 15th. Our Hussars who had been sent out for Intelligence, returned the 16th at Four in the Morning, and reported, that the Turks, having been reinforced by several Thousand Janissaries, were advancing through the woody Part of the Country towards us; whereupon our Army was drawn out of the Camp with all Expedition, and ranged in Order of Battle, expecting the Enemy. At the same Time 1000 Horse, commanded by the Generals Berlinger and Caraffa, were ordered to advance to the Skirts of the Woods which were in the Front of our Army, to oppose the Enemy as they should come out to form in the Plain; and this Disposition being made, all our Men stood under Arms till Noon, but no Enemy appeared; and a Tartar, who at that Time came in to us for Protection, having killed the Treasurer of the Bashaw of Vipalanka, assured the General, that the Report we had had of the Approach of the Turks was entirely false; and that on the Contrary, the Body of their Troops, which had made Incursions into the Bannat, had retired precipitately to Orsova, after having blown up the Fortifications of Vipalanka, and burnt all the Houses in that Place, upon the Advice they had had of our Motions: Hereupon Count Kevenhuller detached Colonel Berenclau to take Possession of Vipalanka if he should find it in any Condition of Defence, or else to return to the Army. It is also rumoured that the Turks are demolishing the Fortifications of Orsova, but we cannot yet give Credit to it. We learn from Ratscha, that as soon as the Turks who had laid Siege to it were informed of the Arrival of the Prince of Hildburghausen with his Body of Troops at Meitrowitz on the Save, they drew off.

London, October 30.
